

EARLY DECEMBER WEEKEND GETAWAY

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 5, 2020

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 6, 2020

SAVE THE DATE!!!

Join members of the Hoosier MG Club for a weekend in Northern Indiana for an overnight trip in early December.

There is no need to caravan up to this trip, but a departure spot and time will be offered in case people do want to drive together.

We will be leaving the Indianapolis area early enough to visit the Auburn, Cord, Duesenberg Museum in Auburn, Indiana on Saturday, December 5th. Arrive early enough to get some lunch there in Auburn at the place of your choice. We will start the Museum tour around 1:00 PM.

After the ACD Museum, we will drive up to Angola, Indiana and check in at the Potawatomi Inn at Pokagon State Park. Later that afternoon/early evening we can ride the Toboggan Run which is artificially frozen so there is no need for snow in case we are short on snow this year.

Later that evening, we can order food from the hotel restaurant and I will be reserving a meeting room for us to eat and enjoy the movie Ford vs Ferrari that I was going to show in my back yard.

In the morning we will have a nice breakfast at the hotel and drive back to Auburn to go through the National Car and Truck Museum which is located behind the ACD Museum.

When we are through, we can drive back to Indy or you can see other sights and then drive home.

More details will follow as the time gets closer.
