DINNER & A MOVIE BEFORE THE 2017 LONDON to BRIGHTON RUN

As an added bonus this year, Hoosier MG's is sponsoring a showing of the movie "Genevieve" at the Royal Theater in Danville Indiana.

In this upbeat British comedy, two friends enter an antique car rally (The London to Brighton Run). Alan McKim (John Gregson) drives his beloved 1904 automobile, named Genevieve, while Ambrose Cleverhouse (Kenneth More) takes his vintage Spyker car. Alan and Ambrose bring their wives along for the wild ride from London to Brighton, and the trek soon turns fiercely competitive, each driver devising clever ways to sabotage the other in the hopes of winning the race

This showing is FREE to all British car owners, regardless of whether you plan on running in the rally or not. Just show proof of British car ownership (running or not) at the door. As an added bonus, each attendee will get a free Jr. Combo (Popcorn, Drink, Candy) courtesy of IBCU, including one free refill on drink and popcorn! The movie runs 86 minutes and will start promptly at 8pm on Thursday, July 13. The Royal Theater is located a short drive west of Indy just off SR36 in Danville, IN (59 S. Washington St, 46122).

Interested in dinner before the movie? Three local restaurants in Danville (Diesels, Frank's Place, Mayberry Café) have a special offer of a free (non-alcoholic) drink with the purchase of a dinner entrée at their establishment. Thanks to Tim Macsary and Hoosier MG's for a great bonus addition to this annual rally.
